COURSE ACTIVITIES/ASSIGNMENTS/REQUIREMENTS

Summary of Graded Course Activities:

The course calendar provides a summary of all course readings and activities for the semester. Details for each unit are posted in the appropriate folder on the course website. It is the student's responsibility to check the course calendar for DUE DATES for all class work, and the unit folders for all required and supplemental readings and other materials. Summary descriptions of all required course work are provided below. Full details can be found in the assignments section of the course website.

Weekly Discussion Board Postings Total Points Possible: 30 (SLO 1,2,3,4,5,6,7)

Week 1: Required - Please post your Introduction on the DB by midnight on Sunday of Week 1

Weeks 2 – 16 Six (6) Interactive topics; 5 points each; full details in the Assignments document.

Two Public Library Reports Total Points Possible: 40 (SLO 1,2,3,4,5,6,7)

Summary: Identify a public library near your home or workplace. If you already work in a public library, you may use your workplace library and library system for this assignment. You may (and should) use this library as a resource for completing most of the assignments in this course and as a resource for your responses to the weekly discussion board topics when appropriate. There are two reports required which will be submitted individually by the dates indicated on the course calendar. Complete instructions are provided in the assignments section of the course website.

Report 1 – Library profile and challenges: 20 points

Report 2 – Library Services and Programming: 20 points

Literature Review 20 points (SLO 1,2,3,4,5,6,7)

Public libraries are rapidly changing institutions and public librarianship is a rapidly changing field of practice. Identify a relevant topic of interest or concern to you and relate your findings in a 5-7 page paper.

This is not an opinion paper; you will explore the professional and research literature on your topic and present the perspectives as you find them. This paper should be double-spaced and must follow APA in-text format. Complete instructions are provided in the Assignments section of the course website.

Final Vision Essay 10 points (SLO 6)

After studying this semester about various public library topics, this is your chance to define what you want your public library to be. Complete instructions are provided in the assignments section of the course website.

COURSE EVALUATION

Students can earn a maximum of 100 points in this course as indicated above. Course grades will be awarded as follows:

A: 90 – 100 points

B: 80 – 89 points

C: 70 – 79 points

D: 60 – 69 points

F: fewer than 60 points.

NO grade below a C will be credited toward a VSU graduate degree. To be eligible to receive an A in the course a student must complete every assignment.

An overall grade of zero can be assigned to an entire paper or project if the instructor determines that its contents, or parts of its contents, were completed by a second party or copied into a paper or project from a source without proper citing. Noncompliance with rules on appropriate use of resources will result in zero credit for those parts of the assignment affected. If you are unsure about the parameters of an assignment, ask for clarification.

Your final grade will be one of these letter grades:

Exceptionally exceeds minimum standards	A
Exceeds minimum standards	B
Meets minimum standards	C
Barely meets minimum standards	D
Fails to meet minimum standards	F

Course Evaluation

Students in this course are expected to: 1) Read or view all assigned materials; 2) Participate in class activities; 3) Submit all projects on time and according to the format designated by the instructor; 4) Conduct all research and composition according to the VSU Academic Honesty Policy. See the COEHS Policy on Plagiarism on page 6 and the MLIS Guide to Ethical Conduct at <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/master-of-library-and-information-science/documents/GuidetoEthicalConductWebversion.pdf>).

Communication

A course Faculty Office discussion board will be available for the duration of the semester. Please post course-related questions that may be relevant to your classmates on the discussion board. You are expected to read the Faculty Office discussion board regularly. If you have a personal question, please send it to the instructor via BlazeView course e-mail. If you would like to speak with the instructor by phone, please email to arrange a convenient time for consultation.

Submitting written assignments

All written work must be submitted as attachments to the assignment modules in the BlazeView course website using Word formats (.doc or .docx suffixes only). All written work file names should begin with your last name and first initial and include the assignment name as the file name, for example: SuddethJ_litreview.docx. The university's Information Technology department provides step-by-step guides on how to use VSU's e-mail system and other resources. The IT Help Desk is found at <http://ww2.valdosta.edu/helpdesk/index.shtml> The telephone hotline is 229-245-4357.

Late Policy

All course work is due inside BlazeView on the date and time indicated on the course calendar. Any exceptions without penalties must be negotiated in advance. Technological crises are not an acceptable excuse for submitting work late unless BlazeView is down at the time the work is due.

There is no grace period for any assignment. After 24 hours 20% of the possible assignment grade will be deducted from the student's score for every additional 24 hours or increment thereof that the work is late up until the day the BlazeView assignment submission window closes (noon on Friday unless otherwise identified). If you need additional time to work on an assignment or if you have a scheduling conflict you must contact your instructor BEFORE the assignment is due to discuss your situation. The instructor WILL NOT accept work after the assignment submission window closes without prior consent.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Course content is delivered asynchronously according to the course calendar. It is the student's responsibility to follow the course calendar and participate via the class website as indicated at the appropriate times. It is in the student's best interest to log into the D2L Brightspace course delivery system daily to check for announcements and e-mail messages related to the course.

PROFESSIONALISM

The Department of Library and Information Studies expects that MLIS students will pursue their academic endeavors and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. All work that a student presents to satisfy course requirements should represent his or her own efforts, including appropriate use and acknowledgement of external sources. The student will be timely and complete assignments and other engagements. The student will communicate in a professional manner in both speech and writing. The student will maintain a professional attitude, being respectful to others and their viewpoints, and seek to maintain objectivity. The student will exercise an awareness of the pervasiveness of the online environment and strive to maintain a professional online presence.

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Valdosta State University is an equal opportunity educational institution. It is not the intent of the institution to discriminate against any applicant for admission or any student or employee of the institution based on the age, sex, race, religion, color, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation of the individual. It is the intent of the institution to comply with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and subsequent Executive Orders as well as Title IX, Equal Pay Act of 1963, Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Students with disabilities who are experiencing barriers in this course may contact the Access Office for assistance in determining and implementing reasonable accommodations. The Access Office is located in Farber Hall. The phone numbers are 229-245-2498 (V), 229-375-5871 (VP) and 229-219-1348 (TTY). For more information, please visit <http://www.valdosta.edu/access> or email: access@valdosta.edu.

STUDENT OPINION OF INSTRUCTION

At the end of the term, all students will be expected to complete an online Student Opinion of Instruction survey (SOI) that will be available on BANNER. Students will receive an email notification through their VSU email address when the SOI is available (generally at least one week before the end of the term). SOI responses are anonymous, and instructors will be able to view only a summary of all responses two weeks after they have submitted final grades. Instructors will not be able to view individual responses or to access any of the responses until after final grade submission. Complete information about the SOIs, including how to access the survey and a timetable for this term is available at <https://www.valdosta.edu/academics/academic-affairs/sois/>
